“Costumes for a Cause!” 7th Annual KidsPeace Trick-or-Trot 5K/1-Mile Walk At Oriole Park, in partnership with Baltimore Orioles

BALTIMORE (October 6, 2016) – Camden Yards, Costumes and a CAUSE! What could be a better start to your Halloween weekend? KidsPeace comes together with the Orioles for the 7th Annual Trick or Trot 5K/1 Mile Walk - a chance to run (or walk) and have some Halloween fun, all while raising money for our youth in foster care.

Orioles manager Buck Showalter and his wife Angela host this family-friendly Halloween-themed event. Don't miss your chance to join in the fun while doing your part for kids in our community. You won't regret it!

The chip-timed race begins at 8 a.m. on Saturday, October 29th at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Runners will run through the Harbor and finish the race on the beautiful field with the Oriole Bird. Get creative! Prizes will not only be awarded to top runners and age group winners but also best costume! And it doesn't stop there, there's a pre-and post-race party with costume contests, a photo booth, face painting, food and Halloween fun. SOLDIERFIT will lead an energetic warm up for all levels of runners and walkers. There is still time to create a team and gather your spookiest goblins together! Top fundraising and largest teams are guaranteed a group photo with Buck and Angela Showalter. Visit www.kidspeace5k.org for more information and to register today.

KidsPeace is proud to have the support of an amazing lineup of local sponsors for this year's event: CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield, United Concordia, Under Armour, PNC Bank, Bridgeway Community Church, Moser Consulting, GEICO, Marriott Baltimore Waterfront, Toyota, Giant, MASN, 105.7 The Fan, Mix 106.5, Today's 101.9, PressBox, The Baltimore Sun and Schulte Sports Marketing & Public Relations.
